OUTLINES.

The latest returns from New York state that Hughes' majority is 52,000 but that it will take the official count with the probability that the Democratic Lieutenant Governor and the balance of the Hearst State ticket is elected; the Independence League charges that its vote for Hearst was suppressed in eight counties—In Tuesday's election the Democrats made a clean sweep in Nevada, elected a Democratic governor in Rhode Island, elected a part of the ticket in South Dakota and carried the election in North Dakota. Missouri has returned to the Solid South, the Democrats having elected the State ticket and 12 out of 16 Congressmen—In the Chicago election a negro was elected municipal judge and another a county commissioner—The entire Republican ticket in Porto Rico was defeated—In the divorce proceedings in Paris yesterday, Countess de Castellane's counsel mercilessly exposed Count Boni, who wrote begging letters to his wife to take him back and afterwards demanded $50,000 a year and the payment of all his debts—Democratic Chairman Garber, of Ohio, says the elections indicate the beginning of the decline of Roosevelt and eliminated Taft and Root as Presidential possibilities—President Roosevelt will sail today for Panama—Mrs. Ernest Gibson was murdered at Lladale, Ga., yesterday and her husband and Miss Matilda Brewer are under arrest on the charge of being her murderers—Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock will retire from President Roosevelt's cabinet and James R. Garfield will succeed him—The President yesterday announced the appointment of Attorney General Moody as Justice of the Supreme Court—New York markets: Money on call firm, 6 to 7 1/2 per cent., closing bid and offered at 6; spot cotton 10 points lower, closing quiet at 10.20; flour barely steady and quiet; wheat easy, No. 2 red, 80 1/2 elevator; corn easy, No. 2, 55 elevator; oats steady, mixed, 39; turpentine firm, 68 3/4 to 69 1/4; rosin firm, strained common to good, 4.25.

"The lie was frequently passed in the New York campaign," remarks an exchange. This reminds us that the liar never passes.

Roosevelt is again delighted that he has a Republican Congress which will either evade or emasculate his reform measures by amending them so they do not amount to a hill of beans.

A newspaper dispatch announces that a huge dam is to be built across the Mississippi river. It surely must cost a big pile of money for a dam undertaking of such magnitude.

Speaking about political plums, there is very little reason to doubt that Republican officeholders in the United States will go plumb crazy over the Republican victory on Tuesday.

The Y. M. C. A. debating club at Cleveland, O., by a vote of 7 to 1, decided that a man who makes a million dollars cannot be honest. That is doubtless the honest conviction of the debating society.

Col. Bryan in the last issue of his paper, The Commoner, has an editorial on the Menace of the Multi-Millionaire. If a lot of us could be millionaires we would promise not to belong to the menace class.

It is stated that "artists will soon announce models for the 1907 girl." Say, if those artists would like to tickle our fancy or pander to our predilections let them pattern after the model of the 1906 North Carolina girl.

The Treasurer of the United States takes pride in announcing that in this country there is in circulation about three-quarters of a billion of dollars. Most people are in a position where they are not in danger of being overwhelmed by such a sluice of filthy lucre.

Col. Bryan's Commoner says: "According to Republican logic the recent increase in the price of silver dollars was not due to increased demand, but to confidence and the Dingley Tariff." The funny part of it is that there are a lot of people who believe that sort of logic. All agree that the silver question may be a dead issue, but we do remember that in order to knock it out the Republicans used the argument that its price was run down because the supply was greater than the demand.

CRANK ARRESTED

Elderly Stranger Made Open Threats on Street to Kill Several Officers

GAVE NAME W. F. FENNEL

Says He Slew Several in Norfolk and Has the Names—Taken in Custody Half an Hour Before Work Was to Begin.

Some little excitement was created on the streets yesterday by the appearance of a fairly well dressed white man, apparently about 50 years of age and evidently a crank, who made open threats of his divine right to kill the chief of police of the city, the chief of the Fire Department and the sheriff of the county. In testimony of his zeal in the matter, he exhibited a book in which he said were the names of parties who had fallen under his hand in Norfolk, Va., and at least one in New York city. The hour appointed for the wholesale murder was 2 o'clock in the afternoon but half an hour before that time, he was arrested under orders of Chief Williams by Officer C. E. Wood, at Front and Princess streets, and was locked up at the police station for an examination into his mental condition.

No one hereabouts seems to know anything of the old man and he declines to give any information as to himself except that his name is W. F. Fennell. He claims that he is a chiropodist and that he extracts corns with clear water. He first made his appearance at Stieff's Music House, just across the street from the City Hall, where a young lady in charge of the store became much alarmed at the vapors of the crank. As soon as the old man had left the store, she called up the police station and informed the officers of what the old man had said. Chief Williams was not alarmed but thought best to send out for the man and lock him up as a precautionary measure. He could not be found for a time, but was finally located by Officer C. E. Wood, at corner of Front and Princess streets. He repeated his threats and was forthwith locked up. On his person were found two cheap watches, a knife and a current number of one of the leading magazines with which he amused himself reading in his cell, after his arrest. He also had $3.40 in hange in his pockets.

From what the police can gather the old man came to Wilmington night before last from Goldsboro and Mount Olive. The book he has in his pockets contains the name of a pool room in Norfolk and there seems to be no doubt that he came from that city. He has an intelligent face and talks with determination and fairly good English. Officer W. G. Brinkley, who talked with the man some time after he was locked up, is of the opinion that the man is a dope fiend and that drugs are perhaps the inciting cause of all his wild talk. He was, however, not in the least intoxicated yesterday when he was arrested by Officer Wood. The stranger will probably be taken before a commission of lunacy to-day and efforts will be made to return him to the State to which he belongs or he will be confined in one of the State institutions.

Stole a Horse and Buggy.

Jim Williams, a young negro, was arrested yesterday afternoon at Fourth and Nixon streets by Officer Leon George, the charge being the larceny of a horse and buggy which he was attempting to sell for $100. Williams was locked up at the police station for preliminary trial before the Mayor at noon to-day. Williams hired the horse and buggy from Messrs. Orrell & Alexander on Tuesday, pretending that it was for Mr. B. F. Keith, whom he had claimed to represent before but had paid for the hire of the team. On this latter occasion he failed to pay and never returned the turn-out, offering to sell it to several persons.

New Hanover's Majority Decidedly Increased—Brunswick Republican.

Further returns from the election in New Hanover Tuesday indicate that the vote in the county was quite 1,400 and that the Democratic majority is fully 1,300. The vote for Congress, excepting Masonboro township, which is yet to hear from, is 1,378 against 1,286 in the entire county for the same ticket in 1904. Considering that this is an off-year, the vote is very satisfactory indeed. Masonboro will easily run the vote for Congress to 1,400.

The best information from Brunswick county is that the Republicans elected a majority of the ticket there. D. R. Johnson for the Senate received a slight majority over Geo. H. Bellamy, Democrat, but the majority is many times overcome by the Democratic majority in New Hanover. C. Ed. Taylor, Republican, is returned to the Legislature by a small majority over M. C. Guthrie, Democrat. Sheriff Peter Rourke is defeated for re-election by a small majority in favor of Jackson Standand. The Democrats have elected Newton, Clerk of the Superior Court, over W. T. Pinner by a good majority. The Democrats get the coroner and one or two of the Commissioners, but the rest is thought to be Republican.

The official vote in all the counties in the State will be canvassed by the County Election Boards to-day.

HANNAH WILLIAMS.

Pretty Home Wedding on Red Cross Street Yesterday Afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Anna Hannah, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hannah, Sixth and Red Cross street, and Mr. Samuel J. Williams, of Belfield, Va., were quietly married in a pretty ceremony at the home of the bride's parents yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. The ceremony was by the Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, and it was witnessed by a number of friends and relatives. The parlors of the home were very attractively decorated for the occasion and the wedding is described as having been a charming one indeed.

The bride was attended as maid of honor by her sister, Miss Alice Hannah, and the groom as best man by his friend, Mr. Palmer. The bride and her maid of honor wore becoming gowns of white and carried white carnations. After the wedding a brief reception was held and the bride and groom left on the evening train for Belfield, which will be their home in the future.

"The Silent Witness" Well Presented—Comedy For To-night.

Last night at the Academy of Music a highly pleased audience witnessed the performance of a clever drama well played—"The Silent Witness"—in which a pretty love story is told and a kodak accidentally proves an important witness to a crime. The specialties were again high class and well worth the money.

To-night the bill offered is a comedy entitled "Is Marriage a Lottery," with a great lesson for both married and single. As a curtain raiser, Thompson & Farrell, the fun makers, are announced to give one of their clever sketches before the comedy proper.

News of the Shipping.

The schooner Warren B. Potter, Capt. O. G. Hammett, has completed discharging here and cleared yesterday for Georgetown, S. C., to receive cargo. The schooner Gardiner B. Reynolds, 331 tons, Capt. Parsons, arrived yesterday from New York with cargo of salt which she is discharging at the Carolina Central wharves. The derelict schooner Job. H. Jackson, which was brought into Southport September 21st and which has been at Skinner's marie railway for temporary repairs, will be taken in tow by the tug Alexander Jones for New York.

WAS GIANT VICTORY

Magnitude of Democracy's Triumph in State Revelation to Doubting Thomases

MANY COUNTIES REDEEMED

Eighth and Tenth Districts Safe—A Rebuke to Butlerism—News Notes From State Capital—Keith Company Amended Charter.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—In speaking of the result of the election in North Carolina Democratic State Chairman Simmons said to-night:

"The magnitude of our victory can be appreciated when it is considered that the Republicans have made the greatest effort they have made in recent years. We have made gains in more than a third of the counties of the State they claimed they would carry their Congressmen. We have not only redeemed the Eighth district, but increased our majority in the Tenth. We have increased our majority in the Legislature, carrying nearly all the close counties and redeeming several counties that went Republican last time. Taken all in all, I regard it as the greatest Democratic victory we have won since the tidal wave of 1898.

"It is a rebuke to the attempted interference of Federal officeholders in this State with our local politics and I do not believe we will ever again see in North Carolina the disgraceful spectacle of the big postmaster and others while holding a high Federal office running for a State office.

"It is an emphatic answer to the claims of Republicans that the trend in North Carolina was away from the Democratic party. It is a rebuke to attempt to revive Butlerism in this State."

Mr. Simmons has received reports showing that Hackett defeated Blackburn by 1,081 majority in the Eighth. The majorities in the various counties of the districts are: Hackett, 925; Rowan 975; Stanly, 165; Cabarrus, 192; Ashe, 125; Allegheny, 292; Alexander, 50; For Blackburn, Wilkes, 725; Surry, 400; Watauga, 300; Caldwell, 147.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 8.—The B. F. Keith Co., of Wilmington, was granted an amendment to its charter today authorizing a change of location from Wilmington to Neal's Eddy, Columbus county, with postoffice at Cronly, N. C.; also an addition to the section specifying the objects of the company adding thereto the manufacture and mining of agricultural phosphates and other such products and fertilizer materials.

The game of foot ball was set for Saturday afternoon at Chapel Hill between the University of North Carolina and A. & M. College, of this city, is called off because the University team demands that A. J. Wilson, captain and half back for the A. & M. team, shall not play. Their objection is on the ground that Wilson is barred under the rules, he having played more than four years. The A. & M. manager has wired the University that the team will not play unless Wilson is admitted to the game and the University has declared that its team will not play if Wilson is admitted.

State Commissioner of Insurance Jas. R. Young gave out a statement this morning to the effect that he is informed that the agents of the Mutual Life, of New York, are carrying on an active campaign in this State to secure the proxies of policyholders to be voted for the administration ticket at the election in New York for directors of the company December 18th. It will be remembered that the meeting of the policyholders held in the Commissioner's office some weeks ago, decided that it would be best to support a ticket made up from the International and administration tickets with the McCurdy men eliminated. Commissioner Young says that proxies of North Carolina policyholders to be used in this way are coming in to him daily and he sincerely hopes that no policyholders will give proxies to the agents of the company for the administration ticket. This should be done, he says as a rebuke to the agents for such unbecoming conduct as well as to guard the best interests of policyholders.

40,000 MAJORITY

A SOLID DEMOCRATIC DELEGATION IN CONGRESS!

MARRIED IN SUMTER, S. C.

Miss Sallie Ennett, Bride of Mr. J. Frank Jarman.

A marriage of much interest to a large number of friends in Wilmington and elsewhere was that of Miss Sallie Ennett, formerly of this city, and Mr. J. Frank Jarman, of Wilmington, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Chas. M. Gregg, in Sumter, S. C., at half after five o'clock yesterday afternoon. It was a very quiet wedding and was witnessed by only a few intimate friends and relatives of the young people to the marriage vow. The ceremony was by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in this city. The home was very prettily decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and the wedding is described as having been a very pretty one indeed. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a becoming brown travelling suit and carried bride's roses. A brief reception followed the wedding at which Mr. and Mrs. Jarman received the happiest congratulations of many friends. They left immediately on the 6:10 P. M. Atlantic Coast Line train for this city, arriving here late last night. They will be at home for the present at the Colonial Inn but will later reside at No. 111 North Sixth street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Jarman have a great many friends in Wilmington, who will be pleased to know of their marriage. The bride is much loved and admired in a wide circle of friends and the groom is one of the city's most popular young business men, being for many years at Hardin's Palace Pharmacy and now in business for himself on Princess street.

PRETTY EVENING WEDDING.

Miss Leila McIver, Attractive Bride of Mr. Walker J. Swalles.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Samuel J. Davis on Market street yesterday evening at six o'clock a pretty wedding ceremony united in marriage Miss Leila McIver, an attractive young lady of this city, and Mr. Walker J. Swalles, also of Wilmington. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion and there were present to witness the ceremony a number of friends and relatives of the young people. The sole attendants were Master George Sloan, ring bearer, and little Misses Elizabeth and Lillie Davis, flower girls, all being nieces and nephew of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church. The bride wore a beautiful creation of heliotrope voile, black hat and carried a pretty bouquet of bride's roses. On account of a recent bereavement in the family, the ceremony was simple but very pretty indeed. Mr. and Mrs. Swalles left on the northbound A. C. L. train, connecting with the main line train at Wilson for an extended bridal tour South. They have many friends in Wilmington who will be interested and pleased at the announcement of their marriage. Returning to the city the bride and groom will be at home at No. 4 North Fifth street.

STRANGER DROWNED

Body of Walter Fields, Missing Laurinburg, Man Found in River Yesterday

REMAINS FULLY IDENTIFIED

Disappeared in Wilmington Monday Night a Week Ago—No Marks of Violence to Indicate Foul Play.

The body of a young white man found floating face downward about fifty yards from shore, three miles down the Cape Fear river, yesterday a little after noon, has been identified by several as Walter Fields, of Laurinburg, N. C., who mysteriously disappeared in this city Monday night a week ago soon after his arrival here to attend the United States Court as a witness in some case from his county. The story of the young man's disappearance has been told in these columns and the fate of the young stranger was half surmised before his body was found. It has been removed to the morgue at Funeral Director Walter E. Yopp's establishment, on Princess street, where it is being prepared for burial or shipment back to the home of the drowned man near Laurinburg.

The body was found by Mr. W. J. Mintz, a fisherman, who was on shore and noticed the object resembling the form of the man in the river. He launched a boat and going out into the stream had his theory of the matter confirmed. The body was made fast to a stake in the river and Mr. Mintz came to town to report the occurrence. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, took with him to the scene Mr. F. A. Nort, of Mr. Yopp's establishment, and the remains were brought back to the city. A Mr. Martin, father-in-law of the young man who has been in the city a day or two prosecuting the search for the stranger, was notified at the Bonitz House of the finding of the body and he soon identified it as that of his son-in-law. Other young men from Laurinburg who came down yesterday to attend the adjourned session of the Federal Court, later identified the body as that of Fields. The body was somewhat decomposed but those who knew the young man, identified him by the clothes worn. There was nothing on the body to indicate the identity, only a small piece of tobacco being found in the clothing. There were no marks of violence on the body to indicate foul play and no inquest will likely be held. The father-in-law of the young man was in no condition last night to take any action about an investigation of the drowning and Mr. Taylor Fields, of Laurinburg, father of the man, has been notified to come. He was expected on the late train last night.

It will be recalled that young Fields was rather intoxicated on the night of his disappearance and that he was denied admission to a lodging house because of his condition. He is said to have gone down to the wharf and fallen asleep. It is supposed that he dropped overboard about the market dock, while there is another theory that he went aboard a fishing boat of the Cape Fear Fisheries Company down the river and was drowned by falling overboard the next day some distance down the Cape Fear. Those familiar with the ebb and flow of the tide, however, say that the place of finding the body indicates that he was drowned near the city and not below the point where the body was discovered. Young Fields is about 23 or 24 years of age and has a wife and child at one of the cotton mills near Laurinburg. His father is an officer of the town of Laurinburg and a splendid citizen. A reward was offered for the discovery of the body.

FEDERAL COURT TO-DAY.

Adjourned Term Begins in Wilmington Again This Morning.

The United States District Court at Wilmington will convene in adjourned session this morning at 9:30 o'clock for the completion of the docket, which was begun last week. Judge Purnell, Assistant District Attorney Giles and other of the court officers arrived last night and all will be here for the opening to-day.

There are eighteen or twenty "retailing" cases yet to be disposed of with the case of Mr. Samuel Blossom, of Castle Haynes, charged with obstructing a rural free delivery route by the building of a fence on his premises in Cape Fear township. It is likely that the District Court matters will be disposed of by Saturday after which the admiralty and Circuit Court dockets will be taken up. A large number of witnesses, jurors and defendants have returned to the city for the adjourned session.

GLORIOUS VICTORY IN CAROLINA

Said the Greensboro Industrial News (Republican) on Tuesday morning:

"Today the voters of North Carolina will register in the ballot-boxes their verdict upon the issues that have been discussed and the position taken upon those issues by the two political parties."

They did. Well, we should smile. North Carolina showed her colors on Tuesday and they are the kind that don't flutter for Adamism and Butlerism. Thanks!

The clean sweep in the Old North State on Tuesday was a glorious achievement, and the result will give the people of the State the profoundest satisfaction. It freed them from the menace of Republicanism and all the anxiety and disgrace that would have followed a victory of the Republican party in this State. It is indeed gratifying from the fact that the affairs of the State will remain in the hands of those who love her most—will abide in the keeping of her loyal sons. The clean-sweep in electing every State official, all ten Congressmen and a big majority of the Legislature, with a majority of some 40,000 to 50,000 as a general result, was an achievement from the fact that the result was in the face of a well-organized Republican State machine aided with men sent by the national administration, and no doubt by money furnished by the National Republican Committee.

The Raleigh News and Observer says of the victory:

"In the year tidal wave in 1904 that swept Mr. Roosevelt into the White House, he received 82,442 votes in North Carolina. Parker's majority was 41,679. The Republicans have boasted of the fine vote they gave Mr. Roosevelt and have glibly prophesied that they would increase that vote this year and greatly reduce the Democratic majority over Roosevelt."

"During the whole campaign, in which they had to fight over-confidence in their own ranks and the most perfect organization the Republicans have been able to command in recent years, the Democrats have set as the goal to which they have worked not to fall below the 41,679 majority over Roosevelt two years ago. They have succeeded. In some counties they have made great gains and it is now certain that the majority will exceed the 41,679 given Parker in 1904. The Eighth Congressional district has been redeemed and North Carolina will send a solid delegation of true and tried Democrats to the next House of Representatives and there will not be a vote cast for any subsidy by any member of the delegation."

"The Legislature will be even more strongly Democratic than two years ago. It is a sweeping Democratic victory and shows that Vance was right when he said: 'Democracy is immortal.'"

ENGLISH SPINNERS COMING.

The Star recently referred to the fact that the commission representing the English spinners would soon pay another visit to the United States to make a special investigation into cotton production with a view to looking into the feasibility of raising a portion of their own mill supplies. It is understood that during their visit to this country and to the South a year ago they were favorably impressed with the idea. It is announced that the present commission will be larger than the one which first visited the Cotton Belt, although the leading members are with the English spinners who are on this trip. It is said they have already arrived in New York and will soon come South in search of lands better adapted to cotton culture than lands which they have been experimenting with in Africa and other countries. It is stated as a matter of fact that the experiments in South Africa have been more or less a failure from a commercial standpoint, and that the English spinners have come to the conclusion after all the country to which the world must look for its cotton supply is the South. So mote it be.

The Department of Commerce and Labor of the United States has taken a great deal of interest in the investigations and plans of the English spinners, and concerning the matter we find the following interesting Washington special in yesterday's Charlotte Observer, under date of November 6th:

"The statement made a few days ago by the Department of Commerce and Labor relative to the return to the United States of the commission representing Lancashire, England, cotton spinners, whose mission is to close for property for the growing of cotton will no doubt cause much discussion among cotton men generally."

"Many cotton men are said to look upon this scheme as one of the most significant affecting the cotton industry in recent years. It is regarded by many as an abandonment of the attempts to grow cotton in the Sudan, in Africa, where the English spinners, backed by the English government, have spent millions of dollars in the effort to grow the staple."

"This effort to get the English spinners to the United States has not been without some trouble. Herbert Martin, of Houston, Tex., one of the largest cotton planters in that State, has recently spent some time in England and while there kept in close touch with the Lancashire spinners. He was thoroughly familiar with their efforts to grow cotton in Africa and the large sums of money that were being spent by them in the enterprise. He gave them figures on what cotton would do in his State, as well as in area, and induced them to send a commission to this country to investigate and to ascertain whether or not the representations that he had made them concerning the productive quality of Southern soil were bona fide."

"While it is the purpose of the commission at the present time to make their investment in Texas, where very large bodies of land are for sale, it is understood that all operations may not be confined entirely to that State or to that section, but that should the commission believe the outlook good for profitable investments in other parts of the United States, their attention may be directed that way."

"As already stated, the members of this commission represent almost unlimited wealth and backing, and the section that induces them to locate will probably reap a good investment."

The South will welcome the English spinners, and if they make a success of their cotton planting scheme in Texas we may get some of them to buy lands in this part of the South and send over some excellent British settlers. The Star would suggest, however, that if the English spinners do not succeed in raising cotton that they move their mills to where the cotton grows. The South has tried that and it is a success."

She was fined $10, and as she arose she said to the judge: "Well, I suppose you need this $10 to help paint your house." "Oh, yes," said his honor; "I think you had better give me $5 more, and I guess I'll paint the blinds." The fine was promptly made $15.—The Green Bag.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Mansell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '98, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; thick flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astounding result that after taking four bottles I was completely cured and as time has proven I am permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

DRIVERS' STRIKE AT BILTMORE

Immigration Official at Charlotte Keeping Them Under Guard Till It is Ascertained If They Must be Deported.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 5.—George W. Vanderbilt, of Biltmore House, has a strike on his hands. All his coachmen and drivers have quit work, demanding higher wages. All the Asheville drivers and teamsters are on the side of the strikers, and have refused to aid Mr. Vanderbilt in his dilemma.

For two days the Vanderbilts have been cooped up at Biltmore House, five miles from Biltmore village. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt were unable to get to church yesterday. Mr. Vanderbilt takes up the collection at All Saints' at Biltmore, endowed by Mr. Vanderbilt. The strikers did not inform Mr. Vanderbilt of their intention to strike until just before church time, but they sent a committee Saturday night to see Mr. Vanderbilt to urge an increase in wages and shorter hours. Their demands were denied.

Mr. Vanderbilt has been cutting down expenses for the past year, doing away with hundreds of men on the estate, and virtually looking after things himself. Where there were twenty men at the Biltmore office, but one remains. Mr. Vanderbilt decided he would charge an admission to the Biltmore estate, whereas formerly all had been free. The revenues from this source amount to about $5,000 a year. In order to further curtail expenses Mr. Vanderbilt did away with the heads of a number of the departments of the Biltmore estate, and said he would manage things himself.

He formerly sent carriages every Sunday for the members of his Biltmore choir, but decided to cut this out. They now go to church in a street car. Mr. Vanderbilt has been supplying Asheville with milk and butter and wood for years. He has advanced the prices on these articles.

The strikers have come into Asheville to await results.

SALE OF NORWEGIAN BARQUE LAUNBERGA, AND CARGO OF SAWED LUMBER.

By order of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, I will expose for sale to the highest bidder at the front door of the United States Custom House, in the City of Wilmington, N. C., at 12:30 P. M. on Monday November 12th, 1906, The Norwegian Barque "Launberga" as she lies in the Cape Fear river, near Southport, N. C., and also her cargo, consisting of about nine hundred thousand feet (board measure) of sawed yellow pine lumber, the same being of dimensions as follows: 6x9 and 3x9 running in lengths of from 10 to 40 feet. The cargo will be exposed to sale first and then the vessel. The purchaser of the cargo will have the right to remove it at his own cost.

The purchaser of the vessel will be put into possession as soon as the cargo is removed.

The vessel is (about) 1,400 tons and about 15 years old. She is dis-masted and otherwise injured.

Both cargo and ship will be sold as they are, and at the risk of the purchaser. TERMS CASH.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Thursday Ed. Smithson, son of M. H. Smithson, of near Battleboro, while pulling a moat out of the gin, had his right sleeve caught by the saws. His right arm besides being mangled and cut was literally torn from his body, which was also cut. His physicians hold out no hope of his recovery. He was Mr. Smithson's eldest son about 26, an energetic, worthy young man.

—Tarboro special, Nov. 6.—Monday morning, Chief Pulley lost $44 that he had collected from the market house renters. The roll, with a rubber band around it, was found by a small negro boy named Lonnie Lloyd. He took it to his mother, Jennie Lloyd, who told him to go down town and find out who lost it and give it to them. As soon as he reached Main street he heard that Mr. Pulley had lost some money. He at once found the chief and gave it to him. They tell us that this boy is to have a new suit of clothes.

—Washington, N. C., special, Nov. 6. Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence of George Grady, colored, five miles from this city, his son, Mack Grady, 13 years old, was accidentally shot by Henry Ledge, a colored boy 16 years old. The boys were playing with a pistol and in trying to break it the load was discharged, entering Grady's neck and severing the main artery. He was immediately brought to Fowle Memorial Hospital, this city, where all possible medical aid was rendered, but without effect, dying the same afternoon. As the shooting was accidental Ledge was not arrested.

—Jonesboro special, Nov. 6.—John Lucas, and Henry Alderman, colored, got into an altercation at a colored wedding at Stephen McKee's, near Spout Springs, Wednesday night. Lucas shot Alderman twice, hitting him in the thigh and abdomen and Alderman stabbed Lucas in the back and abdomen, cutting to the cavity of the bowels each time. They were attended by Dr. Hoyle, of Jonesboro, who reports that while Alderman's wounds are not dangerous, Lucas is seriously cut. While the former bears a good character and is said to have acted in self-defense, Lucas is a bad negro and is reported to have run away from Alabama last winter for killing another negro.

—Clinton special, Nov. 6.—A deplorable accident occurred at the home of Mr. Ab Wallace, a worthy white farmer two miles south of Clinton, Saturday afternoon. Mr. Wallace went to shoot a beef that was in pasture and while passing through a field saw a bird light upon a corn stalk. He fired at the bird with a Winchester rifle which he was carrying. Following the shot he was startled by a scream and running in the direction from which it came found that the bullet had struck his 12-year-old daughter, Mary, just back of the ear, penetrating the brain. Death followed in a very few minutes. The father was almost distracted over the tragic accident. The child was more than three hundred yards from him picking cotton in company with two other children and could not be seen from the position occupied by Mr. Wallace. The fatality was due to the long range of the gun fired by him, which was 32 caliber.

—Tarboro special, Nov. 6.—Inquiry into the mental condition of R. B. Whitehead, formerly of Wilson, N. C., was made here to-day before A. T. Watson, clerk of the Superior Court. Mr. Whitehead was adjudged non compos mentis and was remanded to jail for safe keeping until he can be taken to the State Asylum. A guardian will be appointed to take care of his estate in the next few days. The petitioners in the case are the family and brothers of Mr. Whitehead. They were represented at the trial by Messrs. Paul Jones and Gilliam & Gilliam of the Tarboro bar. Recently Mr. W. B. Whitehead died leaving considerable estate undivided and to safeguard the portion, $6,000, which came to R. B. Whitehead, as heir at law, for his wife and children, it was thought best to take the foregoing steps and have some responsible persons appointed as guardians.

—Washington special, Nov. 6.—Detective Parham left here this morning to go to Charlotte to take charge of Edward E. Eller, a former commission merchant at 306 Tenth street, Northwest, who is under arrest for alleged embezzlement. While in business in this city, it is charged Eller who came here from North Carolina, received shipments of poultry and produce from his former neighbors in North Carolina. His home was in Statesville and he is alleged to have dealt with the firm of Higgins & McMillan at Ennice. It is charged that he gave worthless checks for amounts aggregating about $130. The checks were made payable at the Central National Bank where it is alleged the account of the commission merchant was overdrawn. The complaint of the North Carolina merchants was investigated by Detectives Parham and O'Brien. Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock they learned that Eller had gone to Charlotte and three hours lat-

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. D. P. Hutchinson, chairman of the meeting of citizens of Charlotte township, who held a meeting at the court house Monday and protested against the extension of the city limits yesterday appointed a committee consisting of the following named persons to oppose the extension committee: Messrs. C. W. Johnston, O. A. Robbins, B. D. Springs, C. C. Moore, E. A. Smith, H. C. Doiger, Z. V. Kendrick, R. A. McDonald, E. A. Cole, Charles W. Wadsworth, W. W. Phifer and D. P. Hutchinson. The committee will be known as the anti-extension committee and it will engage itself in fighting the proposition to extend the limits of the city from now until the matter comes up in the Legislature.

STOPS ANY ITCHING

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles.—Wilmington People Recommend It.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Wilmington testimony to prove it:

J. S. King, clerk on Market street, residing at 815 Orange street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment and found it to be a great remedy for itching hemorrhoids. It acted like a charm in my case. I tried all kinds of remedies, but until I used Doan's Ointment I could get nothing to give me positive relief. It is a splendid preparation and you are welcome to use my name as one who says so. I obtained it at R. R. Bellamy's drug store."

TOO BIG TO PARADE.

Barnum & Bailey Experiment of Eliminating Street Pageants.

A circus that is "too big to give a street parade" is a novelty even in these days of colossal enterprises and mammoth amusement institutions. But that is the announcement of the Barnum & Bailey circus, which exhibits in Wilmington, Monday, November 12.

In speaking of the reasons for this striking innovation, a representative of the big show, said recently: "The Barnum & Bailey circus has become so large that a parade is no longer possible or even desirable. If we could be absolutely sure of getting into town by daybreak, the parade would still be feasible, but with our five long trains of cars, this is too much to expect of the railroad companies. In many instances it is 8 or 9 o'clock before the last section arrives and 10 o'clock before it is unloaded and the paraphernalia transferred to the show grounds. This leaves just sufficient time to erect the big tents and prepare for the afternoon performance. To take several hundred men away from the show grounds at the most critical time in the morning in order to give a parade, would mean delay in opening, and consequent discomfort to the public. To compel thousands of people to stand out in front of the entrance in the hot sun or rain, because of the giving of the parade has delayed the opening an hour or more, is positively cruel; but there is frequently no help for it when parades are given. By eliminating the parade the public is also saved a long and uncomfortable wait on the streets pending the always more or less delayed procession which at best has nothing new to offer to say nothing of the interference with public traffic and the business of the city's merchants. Many municipal governments have recognized the latter fact by either refusing to give licenses for parades, or making the tax so high as to be prohibitive. Street parades were all right when circuses were small, and were necessary from an advertising standpoint. The Barnum & Bailey show is too well known to need advertising of this character, and instead of wasting time and energy on a conventional street display, every effort is concentrated upon the performance."

The experiment of cutting out the parade was tried in this country for the first time last season, and the circus man was asked what effect the innovation had upon the business of the big show.

"In anything, it helped the patronage," was the reply. "The necessity for eliminating the parade because of them agnitude of the show was generally recognized and the public was anxious to see a show that was actually too big to give a procession. Before the advent of the show in some of the Western cities, there were some unfavorable comments regarding the 'no parade' feature even in the press, but after the public and the newspaper men saw the performance noticed the increased vim and ginger that was installed into it because the performers and animals were not overworked, and the greater enjoyment of the people because they had not been worn out by a long period of tiresome waiting, there was but one verdict, and that was that the elimination of the parade was a success from every standpoint."

The Barnum & Bailey circus is the only one that has had the courage to cut out the parade. Another well known showman when asked if his show would follow suit, replied: "I would like to but I can't. The Barnum & Bailey circus is the only one that is big enough to do it." And it is evident that it has introduced this innovation in the circus world because the show gives popular satisfaction, without the aid of what is at best a conventional display of so-called pageantry.

LOCAL DOTS.

—There was only one case before the Mayor yesterday. H. M. Harris, colored, was taxed with the cost for an assault on another colored man.

—Licenses to wed have been issued as follows: J. E. Burriss to Miss Matie J. Davis, and Hartles Cleveland Knowles to Miss Hassie Casteen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Casteen.

—Henry Kelley, colored, was arrested late yesterday afternoon by Officer C. G. Jones on a charge of vagrancy. He was found loitering around in the neighborhood of Fourth and Brunswick streets.

—Mr. James F. Post, treasurer, gives notice of a dividend of two and one-half per cent. on the preferred capital stock of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, due and payable at the office of the treasurer in this city on and after November 10th.

—The Fayetteville Observer says: "Hon. H. L. Godwin, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district was 33 years old on Sunday, and on that day his wife presented him with a birthday gift in the shape of a fine boy baby. This is his first son, the other three children being girls."

—Cornelius Harnett and Carolina councils, Royal Arcanum, of this city, have been notified that Mr. Albert T. Turner, of Boston, succeeds Mr. W. O. Robson, late Supreme Secretary of the order. Mr. Robson died a few weeks ago at his home in Boston.

—At the store of the Cape Fear Trading Company, Fourth and Campbell streets, next Saturday, a representative of the H. J. Heinz Company will make a demonstration of the 57 varieties of food manufactured by those people. The ladies of the city are cordially invited to attend the demonstration.

—The two colored men who had such a narrow escape from asphyxiation on the tug Alexander Jones Tuesday morning, were very much better yesterday. The boy, Byrd, was discharged from the hospital during the day and the older man will be able to leave there in a day or two.

AN INTERESTING RUMOR.

Why the Carolina Central Railroad is Not Improved.

The Raleigh News and Observer prints the following interesting rumor in regard to the Carolina Central road:

"A gentleman who reached Raleigh yesterday from Lumberton brings a report that will be a great surprise to the State. He says he heard the report from several sources in Lumberton and it is thus given by him: 'The Seaboard Air Line's lease of the Carolina Central Railroad expires January 1st, 1907. Mrs. Matthews, of New York, who owns a majority of the stock, has offered to lease it for 99 years to the Seaboard, Southern, or the Atlantic Coast Line, which ever company will pay the highest rental.'"

"Continuing the gentleman said that the reason the Seaboard has delayed building new stations and making repairs on the Carolina Central is due to the uncertainty about securing a renewal of the lease on that road. 'Can there be anything in this rumor?'"

ENGLISH GIRLS HELD PRISONERS

Asks For Higher Wages—Quit
Work Just Before Church Time
—Cutting Expenses.

(Charlotte Observer, Nov. 7.)

There were interesting developments yesterday in the local labor situation. In yesterday's issue of The Observer a highly interesting article appeared concerning the dark and shadowy methods employed by the immigration experts in securing evidence from the English operatives, who are alleged to have been brought to piedmont Carolina contrary to the immigration laws. Several of the English girls were interviewed by the newspaper men. Their stories, as published, furnished interesting reading matter.

Early yesterday morning Immigration Inspector A. F. McLaughlin corralled his bunch of 25 operatives in the Charlotte Hotel, stationed two policemen about the doors and did not let them budge during the day. When someone suggested that habeas corpus proceedings be resorted to, there was no one to institute the suit in their behalf and no judge to issue the necessary papers. Mr. McLaughlin stated that he had exercised his authority and had placed these people under arrest, pending instructions from the Department officials in Washington.

The mill men concerned, realizing that no half measures would suffice at this time, yesterday appealed direct to the President, asking that he order a second investigation. Mayor S. S. McNinch boarded the train yesterday afternoon and hurried direct to Washington. He secured an appointment with the President by wire before he left the city. Mayor McNinch will recite the case for the mill men and request that a second investigation be ordered. In the meantime it is probable that the deportation of these immigrants will be held up until definite instructions are received to the contrary.

PENNSY INCREASES WAGES.

Ten Per cent. to All Employees, Says Board of Directors.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company held to-day an increase of 10 per cent in the wages of all permanent employees of the company now receiving less than $200 a month was ordered. The increase takes effect December 1, 1906 and applies to all lines of the Pennsylvania east and west of Pittsburgh. The official announcement of the increase says:

"The Board takes this action by reason of the increased cost of living and the present great prosperity of the country in which the Pennsylvania Railroad shares and which has made it possible for the company to make an increased distribution to its shareholders.

DANGER TO NAVIGATION.

Obstruction Reported Off Frying Pan Shoals by Steamer.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 7.—Capt. Sandoz, commanding the British steamer Bedouin, from Brunswick, which called here for coal and sailed to-day for Bremen, reported that he passed on November 4th in latitude 33:7 N. longitude 78:15 W. in the vicinity of Frying Pan Shoal, the stump of a mast which was about 15 feet above water and attached to it a piece of lower mast about 60 feet long. These he believed attached to a vessel which lay on the ottom and are part of a recent wreck. The vessel is in the track of Brunswick steamers at or near the track of Savannah steamers and is a dangerous obstruction.

STUDENTS IN REVOLT.

Row in Faculty Precipitates General Exodus of Collegians.

Jackson, La., Nov. 7.—The entire student body of about 500 of Eighth Centenary College here struck and went home to-day. They left a stinging statement that they were dissatisfied with the retention of Prof. Moncreiff, who who weeks ago stabbed Rev. C. C. Miller, president of the college. The president is still quite ill from the wounds. He and Prof. Moncreiff had a dispute about serving food to students mess and Prof. Moncreiff claimed that he stabbed Rev. Miller in self defense.

SENSATION IN GEORGIA.

Husband and Young Woman Under Suspicion.

(By Wire to Morning Star.)
Rome, Ga., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Ernest Gibson was found murdered in her coal shed in Lindale yesterday afternoon. Her husband and Miss Matilda Brewer, employed by the Gibsons as a nurse girl and housekeeper, are suspected of the crime and are held in custody pending the result of the coroner's investigation. Mrs. Gibson returned home to her baby at noon and Miss Brewer reported finding her body an hour later. A neighbor informed the coroner that she saw Gibson run from the coal shed and throw away a club a few minutes before Miss Brewer reported finding the body. The condition of the body indicated that the woman had been beaten to death with a club. Gibson is known to have been very attentive to Miss Brewer.

Reports from Washington of a case in preparation for prosecution of the Standard Oil Company received some attention in the New York stock market yesterday.

Distinction in Dress

A handsome stylish suit plays a great part in a man's appearance.

It is true that a man may be a perfect gentleman and still be dressed in an ill-fitting, poorly made suit of clothes, but the world is sure to misjudge him.

While the clothes do not make the man they influence the first verdict of opinion rendered concerning him. We've suits from the shops of the world's best makers.

Fairly priced when we name such reasonable figures as—

$10.00, $12.50, $15.00,
$18.00, $20.00, $30.00.

You are very welcome to overhaul them, get a line on the excellent patterns, and "try on" as many styles as you like.

Make this your clothing store and you'll never have clothes disappointments.

HAS ALIEN LAW BEEN VIOLATED

Government Making Thorough Investigation of Method Securing Immigrants Landed at Charleston—
Great Competition

(Columbia State.)

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 5.—Testimony was taken today on board the Wittekind by the board of inquiry under chairmanship of Commissioner Sargent from immigrants and from Commissioner Watson, Secretary Herbert and Interpreter Famaey, in regard to whether or not improper payment of passage money was made for the immigrants and as to whether facts were not represented to them as inducement to get them over here. This testimony together with a copy of all documents bearing on the terms of transportation, will be forwarded to Washington, and placed into the hands of the attorney of the Immigration Department, who will give his legal opinion about the methods used in getting the immigrants here.

Also the board of inquiry today passed all of the immigrants detained from yesterday's examination excepting three men, who were not in good physical condition. These will be kept on board the Wittekind and returned when she sails. The others will leave Charleston this afternoon.

"I am sure," said Commissioner Sargent this afternoon to a representative of The State, "that if any means have been used that are not strictly legal by which the immigrants were secured for the Wittekind that Commissioner Watson will, upon proper notification, take immediate steps to instruct his agents so that a repetition of the mistakes will not be possible."

"Often overzealousness of European agents causes them to take steps to secure immigrants which are not proper. It was said by some of the immigrants when they were being examined that they were given circulars on board the Wittekind which told them of different wages than they had been offered by the agents. There is also a rumor, which is to be investigated, that agents have to pay for the passage of the immigrants out of their commissions. All this will be cleared up by the court of inquiry's findings before the attorney."

Another point which I wish to emphasize is that when the next ship of immigrants comes into Charleston no one will be allowed on the ship or the dock where the immigrants are to land excepting the officials and the representatives of the press. This time because the arrival of immigrants here was a new thing and there was considerable curiosity on the part of the people of Charleston, we were lenient in regard to excluding every one from the ship and docks. Next time no one but those qualified as I have said, can approach the immigrants or have anything to do with them until they pass from our hands.

"I wish to congratulate Commissioner Watson on his work in bringing the ship and immigrants here. Also I must express my appreciation of the way the immigrants were treated by the local committee. I regard the immigrants into South Carolina this time of a good class, and feel that they will make good people for South Carolina."

It is understood that a representative of the Carolina Trucking Company, Herman Badenhop, filed a complaint with the immigration authorities against the method of handling the immigrants on their arrival here, alleging that no opportunity was given the general public to offer employment to the immigrants. He alleges that he was not permitted access to the immigrants on the wharf, but was told by some one in authority there that the property was private and he could not come upon it. Instead of the immigrants being left free to choose such engagements as were offering, he says, they were loaded into cars on the wharf and hurried off to various cotton mill villages and other industrial centres, according to agreements already entered into in advance.

The laws gave a State or its agent the right to pay the passage of immigrants to the United States, but deny this to private corporations or individuals. If Commissioner Watson was acting for the State of South Carolina in paying the passage of the immigrants he was well within the law, but if he acted as the agent for any industrial interest he may have serious trouble.

It is, of course, known that the cotton mills of this State and adjoining territory are short of labor and that the management are very much interested in the promotion of immigration and have followed Commissioner Watson's efforts to bring in new people with much approval, but that he has acted for them in engaging laborers on the other side does not appear, except in allegation.

Before going to Europe Commissioner Watson had a long conference with Commissioner General Sargent and learned from him just what were the restrictions of the law upon his operations and it is scarcely likely that he has run afoul of any of the provisions of the statutes. The recent trouble in North Carolina over the importation of alien laborers, which, a dispatch from Washington to The State is cited as likely to make difficult some of the phases of Commissioner Watson's undertaking, is believed to be responsible for this close scrutiny and the resulting inquiry into the immigration through Charleston. It is believed that Commissioner Watson will explain everything to the satisfaction of the authorities and if any provisions have been unwittingly violated he will merely be warned against a repetition of them.

Made Happy For Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Alban's, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Price 50c.

When you are broke the girls are shy. They turn and fly as you come nigh. Brace up old man; show you're pluck. Take Rocky Mountain Tea; 'twill change your luck.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Nov. 7.—The cotton market reached still another low level during today's trading and in spite of quite a sharp rally late in the day, was 9 to 15 points lower at the close. Sales for the day were estimated at 250,000 bales. The opening was steady at a decline of 6 to 10 points, which was little better than due on the cables. The weather was good over the holiday, receipts continued heavy and there were bearish predictions as to the showing of the census figures expected tomorrow. The market eased off under the influence of these items which promoted local bear pressure and there was liquidation on a scale down which carried prices off to 957 for January and 9.94 for March or about 19 to 21 points net lower. Around this level there was a good deal of covering and in the late trading prices rallied about 10 points from the lowest active month on some buying for long account. Exports for the day were light and receipts heavy.

Receipts cotton at the ports to-day 71,467 bales against 93,947 last week and 32,961 last year. For the week 460,000 bales against 478,161 last week and 364,463 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 19,151 bales against 12,242 last year and at Houston 16,109 bales against 16,015 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 10 points decline; middling uplands 10.20; middling gulf 10.45; sales none. Opening and closing futures follow:

There's no use getting mad if that for sale sign you stuck on the front of your vacant house has not brought you a tenant or purchaser. Your sign has been read and reread by practically the same people, who pass by it every day and who are too intent on other things to stop and look over the property. Now, if you would advertise in the Business Locals of the Morning Star it would come before the eyes of all the people looking for real estate. This is because they are accustomed to have the Morning Star tell them what property in Wilmington may be had.

ROCK CLIFF LITHIA SPRINGS WATER.

READ WHAT ONE OF THE MOST NOTED CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA HAS TO SAY OF THE FAMOUS ROCK CLIFF SPRINGS WATER.

Spartanburg, S. C., July 24.

To Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Co.:

Gentlemen:—This will certify that I was severely afflicted with a serious case of erysipelas, that confined me to my bed for about six months or more, with daily attendance of my physician, and which eventually settled in my left leg and became so severe that a consultation of three physicians was held and the decision reached that the lower part of my leg would have to be amputated to prevent the disease extending to the upper part of my leg and body. I declined the operation and was advised to try Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Water. I engaged board near the spring and was advised to bathe my leg in the water, at the same time drinking freely.

This application soon soothed the pain, and for the first time in months previous I slept for about two hours. After a week's treatment, without any medicine or physician's help, I walked to the spring on crutches. I continued the treatment daily, and within two weeks was able to walk to the spring without crutches and in four weeks was able to walk home, a distance of 1 1/4 miles, and resume my official business.

I was permanently cured by the use of the water, and take great pleasure in giving you this testimonial to the efficiency of the Rock Cliff Spring Water in the treatment of erysipelas.

MISSOURI BACK TO SOLID SOUTH

Elected Governor and the State Ticket and 12 Out of 16 Congressmen

Governor Beckham, Aged 30, Won United States Senatorship in Kentucky—Chicago Elected Two Negroes—One Municipal Judge.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Returns received late this afternoon indicated that Stanley Matthews, Democratic candidate for circuit judge, had run ahead of the rest of the Democratic ticket and that he is elected by a plurality of about 75. The circuit comprises Hamilton, Butler, Warren, Clearmont and Clinton counties.

Kansas Barely Republican. Topeka, Kas., Nov. 7.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon Chairman Crummer of the Republican State committee, said that returns from 89 of the 105 counties in Kansas so far received, give Hoch, Republican, for governor a majority of 3,000 over Harris, Democrat. The missing counties are mostly in the western and southern parts of the State, and give such small majorities that if all of them were to go Democratic by the usual figures the result could not defeat Hoch.

Wyoming Republican. Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 7.—Majorities for Congressman Mondell and all Republican State candidates are from 5,000 to 6,000. The Democrats will not have more than five members in the Legislature. The re-election of United States Senator Warren is assured.

Two Negroes Elected in Chicago. Chicago, Nov. 7.—The complete returns from the city and from the county of Cook show that the Republicans have elected every candidate on their ticket with the exception of three Congressmen. For a time it was believed that DePriest and Barnett, colored men, who ran for county commissioner and municipal judge, respectively, had been defeated, but the latest returns show that both men were elected by small pluralities.

Democrats Sweep Nevada. Reno, Nov. 7.—Almost complete returns from the larger precincts of the State show a sweeping Democratic victory. Bartlett, Democrat for Congress, will defeat Smith, Republican by 1,000 and Sparks, Democrat incumbent governor will defeat Mitchell by about the same. The Legislature will be close, but a majority of the hold-over Senators will vote for a United States Senator two years from now will be Republican.

Democratic in North Dakota. Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Late State returns show that Burke, Democrat is elected Governor by a safe majority, and Fisk, Democrat, is elected judge of the Supreme Court.

Bill Nye's Brother a Congressman. Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 7.—Frank Nye, Republican, brother of the late "Bill Nye" is elected to Congress from this district, succeeding Lorne Fletcher.

Missouri Returns to Solid South. St. Louis, Nov. 7.—From nearly complete returns from all counties the Democrats have carried the State by a plurality of 7,640, electing all candidates on the State ticket and 12 of the 16 Congressmen. The Republicans elected Congressmen in Kansas City, and St. Louis, but lost all the districts in the State, which had been swept into the Republican ranks two years ago.

One Alabama County Republican. Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 7.—All returning indicate that B. B. Comer, Democrat, has practically rolled up all the votes for governor. Congressman Wiley is returned in the Second by an overwhelming majority and Burnett in the Seventeenth by an increased majority. Belated returns show that Winston, the smallest county in Alabama, went Republican, every Democratic candidate being defeated. This is the first county to go entirely Republican since reconstruction days.

Democratic Governor in Rhode Island. Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—Mayor James H. Higgins, of Pawtucket, Democrat, defeated Governor George H. Utter, Republican, for re-election by a plurality of 1,238, according to the complete returns compiled by the Providence Journal to-day. The rest of the Republican State ticket was elected. Republicans control the General Assembly which is to choose a United States Senator to succeed George Peabody Wetmore.

Democratic Gain in Massachusetts. Boston, Nov. 7.—Revision to-day of the figures in yesterday's State election does not affect the Republican victory, complete returns placing the plurality of Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., Republican, over John B. Moran, Democrat at 31,662 while Lieutenant Governor Eben S. Draper, defeated E. Gerry Brown, Independence League and Democrat, by 9,779. The political complexion of the Congressional delegation remains unchanged.

The Democrats made a gain of three in the State Senate, but the lower branch of the Legislature will remain unchanged and strongly Republican.

Result in Kentucky. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—With only a few mountain counties to hear from, and these practically increasing, Governor Beckham has won his fight against Senator McCreary for the nomination for the United States Senatorship in yesterday's Democratic primaries. Samuel W. Hager was nominated for Governor in the same primary by a majority of between 12,000 and 15,000. Although Senator McCreary carried Louisville by 7,737, Governor Beckham ran so well in the country that he overcame this lead and to-night has about 4,000 votes to spare. John C. Beckham, Governor of Kentucky, whose nomination in yesterday's primary in succession to United States Senator McCreary, is equivalent to an election, enjoys the distinction of being the youngest governor in the United States, and when he takes his seat in the Senate will be the youngest member of that body. He comes of a distinguished Kentucky family and is 30 years old.

A comparison of Kentucky's representation in Congress shows some change, the Republicans gaining two Congressmen, giving them a total of four. The Republican members are Dr. A. D. James, of the Third, John W. Langley, in the Tenth; Don C. Edwards in the Eleventh and Joseph B. Bennett in the Ninth.

Republicans Beaten in Porto Rico. San Juan, P. R., Nov. 7.—The Unionist party scored an overwhelming victory at the polls yesterday carrying all the seven districts of the island. The Republicans were left without representation in the next house of delegates. The Unionist party won in a majority of the municipalities, the Republicans barely saving San Juan. The Arebrito district where the Federation of Labor made a concentrated effort with the assistance of $1,000 contributed by the American Federation of Labor, made a surprising insignificant showing, the vote cast amounting to practically nothing. The election evoked much enthusiasm, but there were no disturbances and yesterday was the most orderly election since the American occupation.

Republicans Worried. New York, Nov. 7.—Governor-elect Charles E. Hughes, accompanied by seven of the secretaries of the Republican State headquarters, left on the New York Central Railroad Adirondack Express at 7:30 o'clock to-night for State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff's Adirondack home, Kamp Kill Kare, about forty miles south of Montreal. The party is due at Montreal at 9:30 to-morrow morning. Mr. Hughes was to have been accompanied by Mr. Woodruff whose guest he is to be, and William Barnes, Jr., Lieutenant Governor M. Linn Bruce, Attorney General John M. Mayer, and L. B. Gleason, but at the last minute those gentlemen gave up the trip and sent Senator Alfred R. Hage with the Governor-elect. Mr. Woodruff explained that the results of the State ticket were coming in so slowly that the others had decided to stay in the city and go up later.

Tuesday's Election Eliminated Taft and Root as Possibilities.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—In a statement today admitting a Republican victory in Ohio, by a plurality, the size of which cannot yet be determined by full returns, Chairman Garber, of the Democratic committee, said: "The result as to the State at large demonstrates beyond question that Senators Foraker and Dick have been endorsed by the people without reserve. It establishes their complete mastery of the Republican party in Ohio and assures to Senator Foraker without severe opposition endorsement in the next Republican convention to succeed himself, and in addition thereto a solid delegation in the national convention for the Presidency if he so desires. The result in Ohio and the wonderful run made by Hearst in New York can be taken as the beginning of a Roosevelt decline throughout the nation. Root's unpardonable blunder, made at Roosevelt's request, of attacking Hearst in the Utica speech lost Hughes thousands of votes. Neither Taft in Ohio nor Root in New York are available. Both have been eliminated by yesterday's results."

PRESIDENT OFF FOR PANAMA.

Will be Accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt will leave to-morrow for Panama. The yacht Mayflower with the President and party aboard, will leave the Washington navy yard at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. The transfer to the battleship Louisiana on which the sea voyage to Panama and return will be made, will take place at Wolf Trap light, Chesapeake Bay. With the President will be Mrs. Roosevelt. Dr. P. Rixey and M. C. Latta, one of the assistant secretaries to the President, will accompany the President.

After a stormy scene, lasting several hours, the coroner's jury late last night agreed to place the blame for the Thoroughfare wreck of Sunday, October 28, upon Daniel Stewart, the bridge tender. The jury disagreed on many points. According to the coroner Stewart will be arrested on a charge of criminal negligence.

DE CASTELLANE DIVORCE SUIT

Merciless Exposure of Count Boni By Brilliant Counsel of the Countess

HE WROTE BEGGING LETTERS

When Divorce Proceedings Were Commenced Graceless Nobleman Demanded $50,000 a Year and Payment of All His Debts.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.) Paris, Nov. 7.—The court room in the Palace of Justice occupied by the Tribunal of First Instance of the Seine, Judge Ditté, presiding, was again crowded to the doors this morning when the hearing of the divorce suit brought by the Countess de Castellane (formerly Anna Gould) against her husband, Count Boni, was resumed.

Maitre Cruppi, of counsel for the Countess, in resuming the presentation of her case, briefly reviewed the points he had covered last week, and declared that the proofs of the Count's infidelity and cruelty contained in the 13 allegations made last week were sufficient to justify a divorce without summoning witnesses.

Maitre Cruppi then plunged directly into the Count's maneuvers since the divorce proceedings were instituted, to re-conquer his wife's affections. After the failure at the attempt at arranging a reconciliation, February 1, when the Countess was granted the temporary charge of her children, Count Boni began a systematic campaign writing to the Countess, letters filled with avowals of sincere repentance, supplications for pardon, passionate words and professions of undying love. The Count's letters described his life as being wrecked and said he was unable to live without her.

"You have been my life," he declared in one of his letters, "your absence will be my death. Take me back once more. I will live only for you. Let me embrace you once more, feel you in my arms," and so on.

On February 25 the Countess sent a cold rejoinder, informing the count that she had suffered too much and had lost all her affections for him and all confidence in his honor and veracity, concluding with the statement that she found him "disgusting."

The Count's tone changed. The next day he sent her a letter in which he upbraided her for being a "mad woman actuated by hate and vengeance and that their children would upbraid her for mere spitefulness."

But the Count soon resumed writing love letters to the Countess, begging to be allowed to see her and predicting that he would soon. The letters continued until the middle of September, when the Count wrote that he would not long survive, pleading to see the Countess and asking her to at least grant him a supreme favor, saying:

"If I am in danger come. Do not let me die like an abandoned dog." It was then, said Maitre Cruppi, that the Countess, worn out with her husband's insincerity, wrote him three postal cards, one of which read: "My response is the refusal of a respectable woman to see such a libertine."

The wording of the postal cards was equally emphatic, one reading: "Do not think I am so stupid as Madame imagines."

The last postal card was signed: "With profound scorn."

Her counsel described the Countess' generous offer to settle $30,000 a year on the Count for life, which the latter rejected. He was offered $30,000 and $200,000 to pay his personal debts, but wanted $50,000 and the settlement of all his debts.

There was a flutter of excitement just before counsel closed his summing up when he referred to a forgery in the possession of the other side, designed to "blacken the character" of a prominent attorney and a man conspicuous in public. But Maitre Cruppi said he would not pursue the matter unless compelled to do so.

After the court had taken a recess Maitre Bonnet, of counsel for Count Boni, began his reply by describing the dreams of luxury of a young American heiress when she married a French nobleman, resulting in making the life of extravagance upon which she entered quite natural to her.

Counsel then read affectionate letters written by the Countess to the Count excusing her inability to furnish funds because her brother George would not supply them. The divorce proceedings, counsel said, were due to the evil counsel of mischief-makers. Without a diverse influence counsel was sure the Countess would return to her husband.

As for the tales of servants and chauffeurs, Maitre Bonnet classed such evidence, mere declarations not made under oath, as a comedy, and consequently he insisted on the examination of witnesses.

Maitre Bonnet protested indignantly against the bitterness shown against his client in picturing him as a brutal jailer of his wife. Counsel

ELECTION CLOSE IN NEW YORK

Hughes Majority 52,000 But His State Ticket is Probably Defeated.

REPUBLICANS ARE WORRIED

Returns Indicate Election Democratic Lieutenant Governor—Hearst's Supporters Charge That His Vote Was Suppressed.

New York, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns from two-thirds of the counties in the State of New York make it impossible up to 11 o'clock tonight to give definite figures on the State ticket other than for governor. Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for governor, has a majority of 52,000 approximately, but the remainder of the candidates are in doubt.

For Lieutenant Governor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, Democratic-Independence League candidate has a lead in the city of Greater New York of 134,941. Up State, M. Linn Bruce, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, is running slightly ahead of Mr. Hughes' vote. As Mr. Hughes came down to Greater New York with a lead of approximately 129,000, it will readily be seen that the vote for second place on the ticket will be very close and only the complete official count will determine the successful candidate.

Returns are coming in very slow from up-State counties. At 11 o'clock forty out of the sixty one in the State had completed the count and turned in the figures. From these it was impossible to predict the result of the entire count as to the subordinate places on the two tickets. At Republican State headquarters no definite statement or claim could be had, but based upon returns already in, it appears that Bruce is elected by 5,000. It was stated that as there were still about twenty counties to be heard from officially nothing would be given out until these have reported.

Governor-elect Charles E. Hughes tonight gave out the following statement:

"It is a victory for sobriety and for decency in the administration of government. But the people will not tolerate indifference to public wrongs. They desire neither exaggeration nor inflammatory appeal on the one hand nor moral or political obtuseness on the other hand. The election is a rebuke to demagogical methods and, it is also impressive in its demands for responsible leadership. I shall address myself to the task of squaring the administration of government with the interest of the people."

Suppressed Hearst Vote.

New York, Nov. 7.—At the headquarters of the Independence League tonight the following statement was issued:

"Reports from up-State indicate not only that Mr. Hearst cut down the Republican vote materially, but that the Independence League vote for Mr. Hearst was not counted in many counties. These votes will have to be added to the announced result of Mr. Hearst's vote in order to give the correct Hearst figures in the State."

"Last night Captain William Astor Chanler stated that his brother, Robert, who was running for sheriff in Dutchess, had threatened to bring mandamus proceedings against several election boards before they consented to count the Independence League vote for Mr. Hearst. Today other reports were received indicating that Independence League votes for Mr. Hearst were not counted in Erie and Allegheny counties. Reports come in also showing that in districts in Clinton, Catkrags, Herkimer, Wayne, Albany, Onondaga and Washington counties there was a failure on the part of the election boards to count the vote for Mr. Hearst which was cast under the scales."

"The facts developed today explain the great falling off of the total vote cast yesterday as compared with the total vote cast two years ago. There is no doubt that the votes represented by this falling off were the votes cast for Mr. Hearst and his associates under the emblem of the scales. In 1904 the total vote cast for Governor was 1,625,907. This year with sixty-three election districts missing only 1,373,450 votes are accounted for although the registration this year was unusually heavy and the weather conditions and the interest taken in the campaign all tended to bring out a full vote. These matters are being fully investigated."

"The Count has not seen the route he has been described to have been. He was always a gallant gentleman who has respectful affection for his wife. The Count's only thought has been to give his wife the luxurious, queenly existence of which he dreamed."

Counsel for the Count declared that the Gould family did not look favorably on a divorce. At any rate George J. Gould wrote Count Boni that he was profoundly grieved at what had happened.

Before counsel had concluded the court adjourned until to-morrow.
